

TERRORISM & 2025

07 January 2025

Recently a reader asked for predictions for this newly hatched year, two thousand and twenty-five, so I'll tackle that after inquiring with The Committee about terror attacks. The title of this post suggest terrorism attacks will occur this year. Yes, like every year because terror attacks do happen every year.

"This year shall not be an exception." Says The Committee.

Terrorism

A recent attack happened far too close to my orbit (family and distance). Many moons ago I heard a car bomb, then 2½ decades after that, a mass shooting took place at a location I used to pass frequently. Other than this, I've only read about terrorism in the news. It seems as if terrorism has increased with the reach and speed of news. I am interested in what The Committee can explain.

Q: Esteemed Committee, do terrorist incidents occur in civilizations able to visit Earth?

C: The personal and social factors which cause and perpetuate attacks, which humans have already identified well, have been addressed and eliminated in Alien ET civilizations that visit Earth.

Q: How could we humans best apply such solutions?

C: Quite simply, as we have said on more than one occasion here; stop teaching human-on-human violence to one another.

Q: What about the definition of terrorism, as compared to war or crime. Is the killing of a hostile military leader an assassination?

C: Terrorism says more about observer reactions than the incident itself.

Q: How are mass killing events different, if at all?

C: They are not, but for the perception of a perpetrator's intentions.

Q: Are intentional killings sometimes or always a part of the life plan & contract? For both perpetrator or victim?

C: Yes, many times, but not always universally in the cases of victims. Perpetrators of mass killings are nearly 100% life plan events.

Q: What happens when victims and the perpetrator die during the same event? Do they come face-to-face in Heaven?

C: Victims forgive, perpetrators gain understanding. Most often a deep display of love, kindness and acceptance is exchanged, as the perpetrator enters a self-imposed hell.

2025 Forecast

Q: Is the war in Ukraine going to end and will the USA play a key role?

C: Double yes.

Q: What about incoming President Trump's promise to have all hell break loose in the Middle East if Hamas does not release hostages; will this happen, the unleashing of force by the USA?

C: No, the hostages will be released before Trump is inaugurated. The captors are not suicidal.

Q: Is the USA going to gain control or possession of Greenland?

C: Yes, but not this year.

Q: Is Canada going to become a state of the USA?

C: No, but significant changes to trade and commerce will occur, which shall prevent the imposition of commercial tariffs imposed on Canadian goods sold to the USA.

Q: Prime Minister Trudeau has announced his resignation. Is the Conservative Leader originally from Calgary, Pierre Poilievre, going to be elected Prime Minister? [I hope I spelled that right.]

C: As things stand now, yes but this is not absolute. President Trump has not yet endorsed anyone, such support will be meaningful for many Canadian voters and their respective Members of Parliament. If Trump decides to throw support behind Mr. Poilievre, Mr. Poilievre's chances of becoming the next Prime Minister of Canada will improve significantly. Mr. Trump will want to meet with Mr. Poilievre first, before offering an endorsement. Many Canadians are concerned about tariffs making exports to the USA uncompetitively expensive, and many citizens on both sides of the border would like to avoid such a development. Canada and the USA are among the closest allies the world has known since the concept of a sovereign nation became normal among human societies on Planet Earth.

Q: What about Mexico? Is Trump's threat to imposed tariffs going to make a difference in the flow of would-be illegal aliens and banned substances from and coming through Mexico?

C: Yes.

Q: Is Trump serious about taking back the Panama Canal?

C: Yes, but President Trump and the USA's legislative body, called Congress, will accept a deal wherein the presence and influence of China is greatly reduced to the point of effectively eliminating it. Trump does not want the canal; he wants it to be managed by friends who present no current or future hostility towards the USA.

Q: How will Trump get along with Russia?

C: Relations between Trump, Putin, The Kremlin and the USA's Congress will all improve.

Q: How about China?

C: Relations and trade will also improve to the mutual benefit of both nations.

Q: What will go wrong around the world because of President Trump taking power?

C: Groups hostile to the USA will suffer.

Q: Is the USA's economy going to improve in 2025?

C: Yes, and good gains will be realized in many areas.

Q: Thank you, Esteemed Committee.

C: Welcome are you, one and all. Do return.
