

Hamas Israel

15 October 2023

Wikipedia offers: Hamas is an acronym of the Arabic phrase حركة المقاومة الإسلامية or Ḥarakah al-Muqāwamah al-ʿIslāmiyyah, meaning Islamic Resistance Movement. This acronym, HMS, was later glossed in the Hamas Covenant by the Arabic word ḥamās حماس which itself means zeal, strength or bravery.

What Wikipedia entry does not say but I will, is that It's also a word which migrated into Spanish many centuries ago, where for centuries it has meant and still means "never ever." The Committee says, this informs as to the imminent disappearance of the terrorist organization.

Uh oh....

Q: What does that mean, imminent disappearance?

C: The Israeli leadership believes that if the organization's current troops remain able to organize or re-organize in ways they have just demonstrated occurred over the past several years, similar attacks will happen again.

Q: How will the disappearance occur?

C: Human news reports are awash in reports of a ground invasion by Israeli forces, which are accurate. This news is being supplied by Israeli leaders as an additional means to convince people to leave the area to be invaded. This will serve two purposes; allow victims of the imminent military action to avoid it and allow Israeli forces the opportunity to screen for terrorists attempting to flee disguised as refugees.

Q: The Israelis know who are the members of Hamas by name, and other identifying data, such as facial recognition, fingerprints, etc.?

C: Most of them and this information, yes.

Q: Collateral damage is likely?

C: Yes.

Q: This doesn't bother the Israelis, specifically IDF troops? (For readers unfamiliar, IDF means Israeli Defense Forces, which means military. Army and Air Force, I don't think the Israeli have much if anything in the way of a naval operations, i.e. a navy, coast guard or maritime infantry.)

C: It bothers troops generally more than Israeli citizens, but these worries fade when images of beheaded hostages are recalled.

Q: How do recent and upcoming Israeli military actions compose or amount to revenge?

C: The moves are revenge, but the Israeli goal, the true objective is to prevent repeats by deterrence.

Q: Was Iranian leadership involved?

C: Intimately; ideologically, logistically and financially.

Q: Are Iranian leaders happy to have Palestinians carry out such attacks?

C: Quite.

Q: The perspective of Palestinians I see, who see Israeli presence as an occupation by invaders, intruders who do not belong. What does Iran see in all this? Neither Israel nor Iran want each other's anything.

C: Israel's existence represents an obstacle against Persian domination of the region, and the fastest route to control & subjugation of Arabs, where necessary according to Iran, is to get rid of Israel.

Q: Many reports suggest Israel was harsh on people in Gaza, and also the West Bank.

C: True. Israeli sainthood is not forthcoming, we can assure you.

Q: Why didn't Israel long ago get rid of these territories it acquired in the 1967 war?

C: Israel sees such a step as leading to a similar war.

Q: Well, that's happening now, right?

C: No, this was a terrorist action, not a war initiated with a standing army, equipment and munitions. Israeli has long believed that if 1967 war territories were relinquished, these areas would become military training grounds used against Israel.

Q: What is Israel's goal right now?

C: After eliminating Hamas and remnants, to re-incorporate the territories to become simply another portion of Israel, specifically Gaza will no longer have a perceived border and will be part of the Beersheba or southern district. Also contemplated is the creation of a seventh district called West Bank.

Q: This has not been and is not going to be pretty.

C: No.
