

PRESIDENTIAL PREDICTION SHIFT

23 November 2024

No, the title doesn't mean The Committee's prediction changed, which is now impossible. It's a mixture of three topics readers suggested when I asked for them in early October; I'm overdue.

1. Predictions By Mediums
2. Status of The Shift October 2024
3. USA Presidential Election & HCPs (Hidden Controlling Powers)

Let's address questions for all three in one post, shall we?

Q: Perhaps the topic should be "predictions through mediums" since a person doing this, such as Yours Truly, is a transceiver. Essentially prediction means accuracy, or at least that's what I thought of. Please tell us, Esteemed Committee, why do differences show up? Why does Gypsy No. 1 say "north" but Gypsy No.2, using a different crystal ball, say "south" when asked the same question about the same topic?

C: Many sequences of events exist and can be created. Each medium sees a different timeline of occurrences.

Q: Because the future is not fixed?

C: Correct, but often a far-reaching event is nearly certain to happen, to the point where many among you would see it as fixed. Even the highly likely event, where it is 80, 90 or more percent probable, can be changed.

Q: How would that happen?

C: Enough people believe in changing it.

Q: Does everyone get an equal vote, a similar size role, voice or input into a thing happening?

C: No, the effect is the result of a weighted average. The unaware get no vote. Your thoughts cannot be compelled. How closely affected shall be any one person increases their influence on the occurrence. Think of a weighted average. Such participants, if they wish, can change the event, even if unaware of the process and existence of multiple, nearly infinite numbers of timelines. These people, as it relates to a presidential election, are called voters, then political campaign workers and then candidates for position an election purports to select.

Q: How about for an individual person?

C: This is the life plan & schedule, always able to be altered by a soul and her/his guides. Other affected souls have a voice, and the effect extends to the involved.

Q: Does belief in life plans become a requirement for any of this?

C: No, but it is helpful. To consciously ponder, consider and wish for a different outcome can be done without knowing of a life plan, but doing so with understanding the situation might be part of a soul's Earth adventure contract, improves ability to modify.

Q: What about the status of The Shift? How are we doing here on Planet Earth?

C: Events are unfolding as expected. Frequency, intensity, order or sequence, calendar schedules and types, shall continue to unfold in ways we either are prohibited from revealing or are unable to say, because such information is undecided. Skeptics will doubt what we could say, but then react with unfavorable fear when events do happen, which is best avoided. Such doubters will benefit more from not knowing before & until an event takes place.

Other humans more aware, such as this website's regular readership, will have less, often much less fear of surprising events, even if they dislike them. Such people will be in a position to offer assistance to others willing to listen. How much each of you chooses to do this, is a personal choice to be made at the time others around you are beginning to display reactions unfavorable.

Q: Let's assume the HCPs did not want Trump to win; is that true?

C: Yes, it was their preference he not become President of the USA again.

Q: Do and did they have a Plan B, a contingency strategy, in the event Trump was chosen?

C: Yes, because most of them knew it would.

Q: Why didn't they stop it?

C: You were aware of the assassination attempt in July, yes? That was their attempt to stop it, among other things. You also know of the criminal cases cooked up to derail Mr. Trump.

Q: So what are the HCPs going to do now? Trump takes office, and....

C: Watch and observe. Far more shall mankind derive from observation of events as they occur. Knowing in advance will not be beneficial, even if truly satisfying. We shall say this: the objective is to have a more easily manipulated president in four years, but Trump is aware of this. He will proceed with the goal of making a reversal of progress, as his administration and supporters define it, difficult and over the short-term, impossible.

We also say, across-the-board revelation of Visitor-To-Earth presence will occur before Mr. Trump's second term in office concludes. His reaction and the general response across mankind will have an effect on how American voters think and offer support to candidates come year 2027.

Q: The HCPs know Alien Extraterrestrial revelations are coming?

C: Yes and have attempted to formulate plans to manage the process in ways which suit their preferences. This will not work.

Allow us to explain why.

Humans will be given the gift of history. Imagery which amounts to videotape-like displays of Earth events. These sometimes moving holographic videos shall be offered by your friends and cousins. Humans will learn about events almost completely unknown which had direct effects on mankind's social development or will learn about timing sequences now misunderstood or incomplete. We refer to the Great Flood as one example. The cause and effects will be displayed for all humans to see.

Lemuria and Atlantis will be explained.

Previous interaction with Visitors-To-Earth will be shown and explained. This history will naturally lead to current events, and your extraterrestrial cousins and friends will discuss hidden controlling powers, how they came to be and what roles they play now.

This will set off firestorms of comments, inquiries and investigations.

The HCPs themselves are prepared to remain hidden and unidentified and will succeed, but their influence and control will be eroded away faster than they wish, even with the backup strategies they have devised to thwart or lessen it.

Humans will not be as fascinated or horrified as many people would now be, if the whole story were laid out today. The reasons will be the distractions Shift Events and the Alien Extraterrestrials themselves offer.

Q: Thank you, Esteemed Committee. I expect we'll get more questions.

C: As do we and we remain ready. Be well, one and all. Return soon.
